INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION

BETHESDA 2007

CPSA
Colored Pencil Society of America

July 14 - August 25, 2007
The Mansion at
Strathmore Gallery
10701 Rockville Pike
North Bethesda, MD

Given that some of our members are attending the Annual Exhibition, this month's newsletter will be a condensed version.

Reminder: there will not be a chapter meeting in August.

CHECK IT OUT!

The big news this month is Chapter 220's new website, www.cpsadc220.com. Our thanks to member Susan Strok for making this a reality and giving our group the opportunity for greater exposure. Susan has designed and developed the website and will now be in charge of updates and maintenance. Please contact Susan to include your artwork and artist statement. Thanks Susan for a great job!

Susan also has a colored pencil figure drawing accepted into the Colorado Academy of Art 2007 Annual Drawing Competition. The exhibit runs Aug. 20 - 31 with an opening reception Aug. 14. More information can be found at www.coloradoacademyofart.com.

CPSA Chapter 220 Meetings

Unless otherwise noted, meetings are held at Rocky Mt. PBS, 1089 Bannock, Denver (10 am - 12 noon)

August: NO MEETING -

Sept. 8: Workshop by Barbara Stone

Artist Barbara Stone to discuss using symbols in your artwork and making art that draws from your true spirit at her studio in Longmont. Bring your camera to take photos of the animals (some exotic) that live on the surrounding farm. Directions to Barbara's studio will be included in a future newsletter.

October 13: Backgrounds!

What do you do with them? How do you draw one that doesn't compete with the focus of your drawing? Bring your questions and your solutions.

November 10: Chapter calendar for 2009

Discussion of publishing a 2009 DC 220 calendar for fundraising and marketing. Theme? How many do we want to make? Where to market? Guest speaker will be a representative from a qualified printer to discuss options and costs.

December 8: Annual Holiday gift exchange

Bring a piece of your original art to give and you'll receive one in return.

Minutes from the July 2007 meeting of CPSA Denver Chapter 220

The July 21, 2007 meeting of CPSA Chapter 220 was called to order by President Heather McGarey at Rocky Mountain PBS, 1098 Bannock, in Denver. In attendance were Heather McGarey, Jack Thompson, Dorothy DePaulo, Kearn Blocker, Heidi Snyder, Ann McDougal, Michael Burrows, and Susan Strok. We also welcomed a prospective new member, Efrain Garcia.

Jack Thompson gave the treasurer's report. We have $345 in the treasury.

Photographs taken at the polo grounds were shared with members that were unable to attend. It was noted that there will be another opportunity to take pictures at the polo grounds near Elizabeth, Colorado some time in August.

Susan Strok gave a presentation showing a prospective web-site for our organization that she has designed and developed for us. It was unanimously approved. The cost of the web site will be approximately $200 per year. It was decided that each member who wishes to have a page on the web-site would contribute $20. Hopefully, the domain name will be www.cpsadc220.com. The web-site should be up and running within the next two weeks.

We reviewed a beautiful new book, Strokes of Genius, of which member E. Michael Burrows was a contributor.

It was noted that CPSA Chapter 220 t-shirts are now available for $3 each. Contact Dorothy DePaulo if you want one.

The possibility of hosting the CPSA International show some time in the future was explored. The fact being, that we are such a small chapter, it would entail a tremendous amount of commitment and work from each of us. Heather McGarey stated that she would look into exactly what that would entail when she goes to this year's show in Bethesda MD, and we will discuss it again at a future meeting.

Respectfully submitted by Dorothy DePaulo
