MEETING MINUTES

The May 10, 2008 meeting of CPSA Chapter 220 was called to order at the home of member Ed Eastman. Attending the meeting were: Michal Feder, Ed Eastman, Jack Thompson, Diann Anderson, Kern Blocker, Heather McGarey, Marjorie von Frantzius, Ann McDougal, Bob Rice, Heidi Snyder, and Dorothy DePaulo.

Heidi Snyder and Dorothy DePaulo announced that we have procured a show space for the month of September at the Belmar Public Library in Lakewood. Since space is limited, it was voted that we could each hang one piece no larger than 16"x20" (framed). To make a more uniform exhibit, we also voted that the piece should be framed in a black frame with a white or off-white mat.

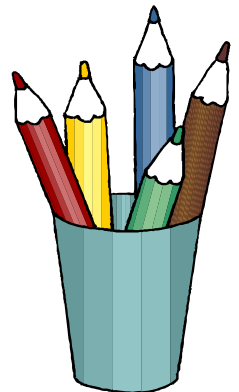

We voted to have an August meeting at the Belmar Library on August 23. Work for the show can be dropped off at that time. It will be hung September 2nd. Those unable to attend the meeting should contact Dorothy or Heidi to arrange for a time to deliver your work. Diann Anderson volunteered to write a short statement about our organization that will hang with our work.

A discussion was held and we agreed to do the Animal Planet Show also. Ann McDougal will arrange a date for that show.

We voted to sponsor and teach a "Beginning Colored Pencil" workshop at the PBS building in October 2008. A discussion was held about organization of the class and how to advertise for it.

Next month, bring a piece of artwork for the "Birthday Calendar Book". After the meeting Robin Rosefelt from Alpha Graphics gave a talk on framing artwork.

Respectfully submitted, Dorothy DePaulo
